Enrollment for 2009-2010

If you have a child that will be ready to attend Providence next year (age 3 by October 1st) please turn in an application to Joellen in the office. We are also considering a half day, morning, Toddler Class for 09-10 school year. Please let us know if you are interested (ages 18 mos. to 3 years)

I know it seems early, but our enrollment process underway. We have started tours for perspective families on Mondays and Thursdays. They are all full thru the end of November. If you know anyone interested please advise them to take a look at the website, under admissions the dates and the times are listed. We are working on the class lists for next year (2009-2010). Please take the time to fill out the form below about your plans for next school year. We have many families that are interested in our school at all levels that already have applications on file.

Ms. McCarter will be offering reading tutoring in the library after school. Please contact the office to be transferred to the library for more information. Thank You.
