FABULOUS FAAB BASH!!!

Over 500 people gathered on our campus Sunday afternoon for the 3rd Annual FAAB Bash. Children and families had a marvelous time. A BIG thanks to the fundraising committee and staff for putting on a great event. Special thanks to Joellen Kuhn, Jen Pederson and Ashley Herndon who worked for weeks in preparation and then all day Saturday and Sunday to make sure every detail was set. Thanks also to our banker at 5th/3rd for sponsoring the inflatables which were a big hit, thanks to our neighbor Josh Sherman for allowing us to park on his lot, and thanks to the dozens of people who helped by sending auction items, classroom basket items and baked goods. We raised $3000 and a good time was had by all!

Cake Walk

A HUGE THANK YOU to everyone who brought a baked item for the FAAB Cake Walk. The activity was very popular and much fun. Winners had a difficult time choosing from all the awesome desserts. A special thank you to Lynn Cassone and Roberta Burns for working a shift at the cake walk.

A single key was found on the primary playground. If you think this may be your key please call Joellen 255-7330 or email Joellenprovmont@aol.com

“Yes We Can!” Providence will participate in this recycling contest once again this year, so please save your cans! Providence won a $1,200.00 cash prize last year! More details to come.

“Lexington will once again be competing in the (2008) US Mayors’ Cash for Cans annual aluminum beverage can recycling contest. This community-wide contest which challenges cities across the country to collect and recycle aluminum beverage cans, runs from October 1st through October 31st, 2008. Lexington will be participating in this contest for the third time using the theme of Yes We Can!“

1215 Texaco Road House News – Deconstruction work will begin next week on the 1215 property which we have purchased to improve our parking and traffic flow.

Child Observations – Observations began October 1st. We have a full schedule of parents observing over the next two weeks. If you would like to make an appointment to observe please call the office and speak with Joellen or Cathy Moloney. Please be sure to check into the office on the day of your scheduled observation. If you have not scheduled an observation and would like to stop in one day, please come into the office to see if there is an opening to observe your child’s class. We allow one family to observe at a time.
