Inside Providence:

Earlier this week you should have received a letter from the school regarding the new password protected section of our website called "Inside Providence". This section will allow you to view pictures and documents specific to your child's classroom. The general public will not have access to these pages. We are looking for a few parent volunteers who would be interested in assisting teachers with downloading information to their classroom site until such time that we have everyone trained. If you would like to assist, please contact Jen Pederson at 255-7330 or your child's teacher. Thank you so much to the Marketing committee for their hard work in getting this section up and running thus allowing us to further enhance our communication efforts.

December 17, Thursday - Elementary Winter Chorus Concert - 7:00pm - Founders Arts and Activities Building - watch for more information to come later.

December 18, Friday - Winter Break - Dismissal at 11:30am
