DID YOU KNOW???...

We often have guest visits from past students.... Last Friday, April 22nd classroom VII had a visit from 28 year old Kartik Venguswamy.

He is now an attorney in Washington D.C. and will appear as a contestant on Jeopardy June 22nd.

GROUP PICTURE DAY TOMORROW - FRIDAY APRIL 29TH

Reminder: Please always enter our building through the front door and sign in on the sheet at the front desk. The back doors are open for the children to move about to the playground and to the Founders Building. We ask this for safety reasons. Thank you for your cooperation.

Thank You Providence Community for your support of the Scholastic Book Fair

Total sales were $4,939.92. Our cash profit was $1,234.98 and we received an additional $397.00 in new books.

The cash profit will be used to purchase a new set of World Book Encyclopedias for our school library. If it weren't for your generosity and huge participation, this would not have been possible.

Thank you again for supporting Providence Library.

Sincerely, Ms. McCarter

Have you seen the brochure for Providence's exciting summer Camp with the Arts?

It may only be springtime but we hope you'll think ahead to summer break and sign up for the new Camp with the Arts. Under the direction of Mr. Martin, Camp with the Arts will immerse your child in art, music, drama, culture and science. Two-week sessions begin June 13 and run through July 22. Registration is open to Providence students only through April 15. After that date, registration will open to students from other schools. If you have any questions, please stop by the school office or speak with Mr. Martin. Let's get creative!

Due to a misprint in the Herald Leader, we would like to clarify that all sessions, June 13- July 22nd are open to all age groups, 4-12. We apologize for any confusion.

Summer Tutoring - Lower Elementary certified teacher Emily Balsam will be offering tutoring sessions this summer. Contact her at school - mailbox, telephone 255-7330 (after 3pm), or eabalsam@gmail.com
